

Oct 5, 1864

Battle of Allatoona

Union troops repulsed assault on Fort by larger Confederate forces at Allatoona, Ga. Oct. 5, 1864

about $\frac{1}{3}$ of Union troops died

May 17, 1864

Battle of Adairsville

Union forces of Gen Sherman forced Confederates under Gen.
Johnston to retreat at Adairsville, Ga.

Feb. 20, 1864

Union forces defeated at OLUSTEE, FLA.

1864

1912 Dates J-BK

U.S.

U.S.S Grant was made
Commander-in-chief

Feb 24, 1864

By the Act of Feb 24, Pres. Lincoln was authorized "to call for such number of men for military service as the public exigencies may require."

Feb 29, 1864

By An act of February 29, 1864 Congress reverted the grade of Lieutenant-General and authorized the President to place the General whom he should appoint to fill it in command of the Armies of the United States under his direction and during his pleasure.

Union sent Grant's name as Lt. Gen.
and was immediately confirmed

21st 1864 - Apr 1865

1912 Dates J-BK

ANDERSONVILLE PRISON

At a village in SUMTER Co. Ga. 62 mi south of MACON. 49,485 Federal prisoners were confined by Confederates within a tract of 22 acres (later 27 acres) without shelter from the sun and frost & in the most filthy unsanitary conditions. Over 12,800 or 26% of the total # confined - died. The prison superintendent WIRE was, after court-martial, hanged for causing the death of persons by his neglect.

Mar 9, 1863

Lieutenant General Grant and Lincoln met in the presence of the Cabinet, General Hallock and others. Pres. Lincoln presented Grant with the commission of Lieutenant General

Mar 10, 1864

Grant was formally assigned to the command of the Armies of the United States

He now saw that his place was with the Army of the Potomac
He went to the front; conferred with Meade & decided Meade should retain his command. He then went to Nashville and discussed with Sherman who succeeded him as chief of the Western Army;

the plan of operations in Tennessee & Georgia.
returning on Mar 23 to Washington.

He was now the most popular man in the U.S.

Mar 13, 1864

Red River Campaign in Louisiana started by Federal forces and continued into
May.

Mar 14, 1864

Volunteers who come from New York County were given $677 bonus to sign up and soldier pay of $16/mo with clothing and rations

Gave rise to bounty jumping thieves enlisted; got the bonus,
deserted, went to another place;
enlisted again under another #
got the bonus etc

April 1864

The 2 salient features of Grant's plan were the destruction & capture of Lee's Army by himself and his force of 122,000 and the crushing of Joseph E. Johnston by Sherman and his 99,000.

His collective objectives were Richmond and Atlanta

Apr. 10, 1864

Archduke MAXIMILIAN of Austria, puppet of Napoleon III, is Crowned Emperor of Mexico in violation of Monroe Doctrine.

Apr 12, 1864

FOET PILLOW

About 40 mi above Memphis, Tenn. was defended by Major Booth and a garrison of 557 men. On April 12, the fort was attacked by Forrest and a large force of Confederates. The garrison was about to surrender when Major Bradford, who assumed command on the death of Booth, refused to do so.

The confederates at once renewed the attack And the garrison fled.
The enemy gave chase And murdered between 300 & 400
without the slightest mercy.

1864

1912 Dates J-BK

English act extended 10-hr day
to many trades

1864-1867

1912 Dates J-BK

Tabernacle at Salt Lake City
Shape of oval 250 ft long 150 ft wide 70 ft hi

Roof covered with iron shingles Seats 8,000 people & will hold over 12,000

Apr 10, 1864

Austrian Archduke Maximilian
(July 6, 1832 - June 19, 1867) - was crowned emperor of Mexico by conservatives aided by French troops.

Napoleon III of France established
this under the Hapsburg Prince Maximilian